Governor Tritle and Arizona

PUBLIC OF INION a paper published t Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, the former home of Governor Tritle, contains the following compliment tary notice of Governor Tritle:

'We are on receipt of the second biennial message of our former fellow citizen, Frederick A. Tritle, Governor of Arizona Territory, delivered to the 13th Legislative Assembly on the 12th of January. During his adminittration the material interests of he Territory have advanced to a wonderful degree. His wise direcion has done much to bring the possimilities of the Territory to the noice of the world. From his message we learn that in the rich valleys bordering the principal streams of of the Territory are large bodies of land, as rich and productive as any in the West, capable, under proper conditions, of affording homes for a large population. Immense stretand Fares bill, his voice and vote ches of fine grazing lands are yet unoccupied.
